

Rugby rep plays new role

By UNAISI RATUBALAVU

A NATIONAL rugby rep, Seremaia Bai is a Health and Fitness ambassador for the Executive Development Properties Limited.

The company (EDP) will build The Haven — a $500million project in Nausori.

The Haven is an integrated tourism and development project which will see Nausori having a 180 hotel room, apartments and an integrated sports facilities.

Client Services manager, Tui Saukuru said Mr Bai who plays professional rugby in Europe was brought up in Nausori and the company is excited to include him in the multi- million dollar project.

“Seremaia Bai is appointed as a key adviser and ambassador of all issues on health and fitness for the project,” Mr Saukuru said.

“EDP will engage Bai to promote and advertise The Haven as a world’s best environment for healthy living and the new fitness centre will be named after him,” Neale Slacke, managing director of EDP said yesterday at the official announcement.

EDP owns 18.75 acres of Residential B Freehold land at Ross Street in Nausori.

The Haven Project will get under way in the next couple of weeks, pending the approval from the Town and Country Planning and the Nausori Town Council.

Mr Bai and his family were at the official function yesterday.

He thanked the company for helping him and thinking of his post rugby career.

“As you know, a lot of rugby players always find it hard after their professional rugby career is over and we always talk about this with my wife.

“And this opportunity given by EDP will help in the overall health and fitness of people in Nausori,” Mr Bai said.
